Celebrating International Women's Day 2018
Our union was founded by brave women to fight against discrimination on the job including age, weight, race, marital status, having children, for men to have the same rights as women. As we celebrate International Women's Day, we are also fighting against sexual harassment and sexual assault on the job in order to ensure full equality and respect for our role as aviation's first responders.

CWA Sisters and Brothers on Strike at Frontier Communications
We are on strike at Frontier Communications! Our CWA Sisters and Brothers at Frontier Communications, 1400 strong, in West Virginia and in Ashburn, VA, are fighting for a fair contract and to keep good jobs right here where we live. We stand with them and call on AFA members to find a picket line to walk in support.

"We have been very clear throughout the bargaining process that our top priority is keeping good jobs in our communities," said Ed Mooney, Vice President of CWA District 2-13. "Going on strike is never easy. It's a hardship for our members and the customers who we are proud to serve. But the job cuts at Frontier have gone too far — we know it and Frontier's customers know it. It's time for Frontier to start investing in maintaining and rebuilding its network in West Virginia."

Here's You Can Help!

AFA Invited to Speak at Summit with Major Policy Influencers

AFA International President Sara Nelson was invited to speak at the Progressive Caucus Summit tomorrow, March 10, in Baltimore. Sara will share the disaster relief efforts of AFA members and the rest of the Labor Movement. She will share important role unions played in mobilizing a human response to need in our communities hit hard by natural and man made disasters. Our union will remind policy makers that unions give voice to the most vulnerable and hold together our society. A strong democracy must include strong unions.

Take the Sexual Harassment Survey

We are conducting a 3 minute anonymous survey to gather information about Flight Attendants’ experiences with onboard sexual harassment and assault. Your answers will help quantify the extent and nature of this issue. The survey will be open until March 21, 2018.
